Anna the Storm-Water Drain Cat

by Stella Barton Day

illustrated by
Jennifer Tipton Cappoen

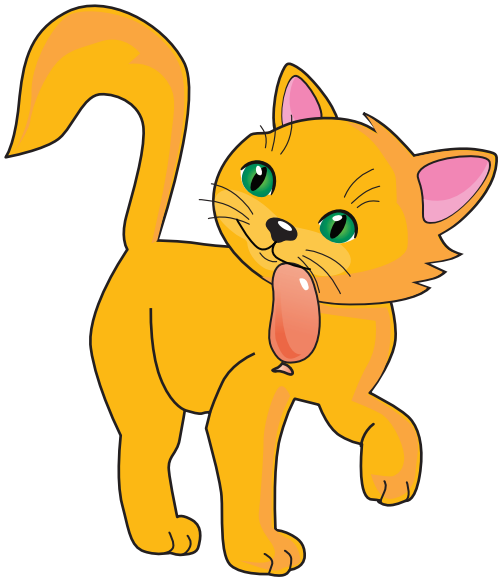
Dedication

This book is dedicated to my family, which includes my three beautiful adult children and my eight fantastic grandsons. Books and storytelling have always been an important part of our daily lives. But most importantly and from the bottom of my heart, this first book is dedicated to my loving husband who has always wanted me to write a book.

A very loving thank you to all of you for your encouragement.

Hopefully this will be the first of many books I will publish.

Anna the cat had lived in the storm-water drain all summer long. It was cool in the drain. She liked it.

All the people in the neighborhood brought her kitty treats. They talked to her.


One little girl, whose name was Lilly, brought her special treats. Lilly brought the cat little pieces of steak. She also brought whatever yummy treats her mommy made for the family.