Cindy W. Hollingsworth's

Westie Tails

Meet Two Little Westies

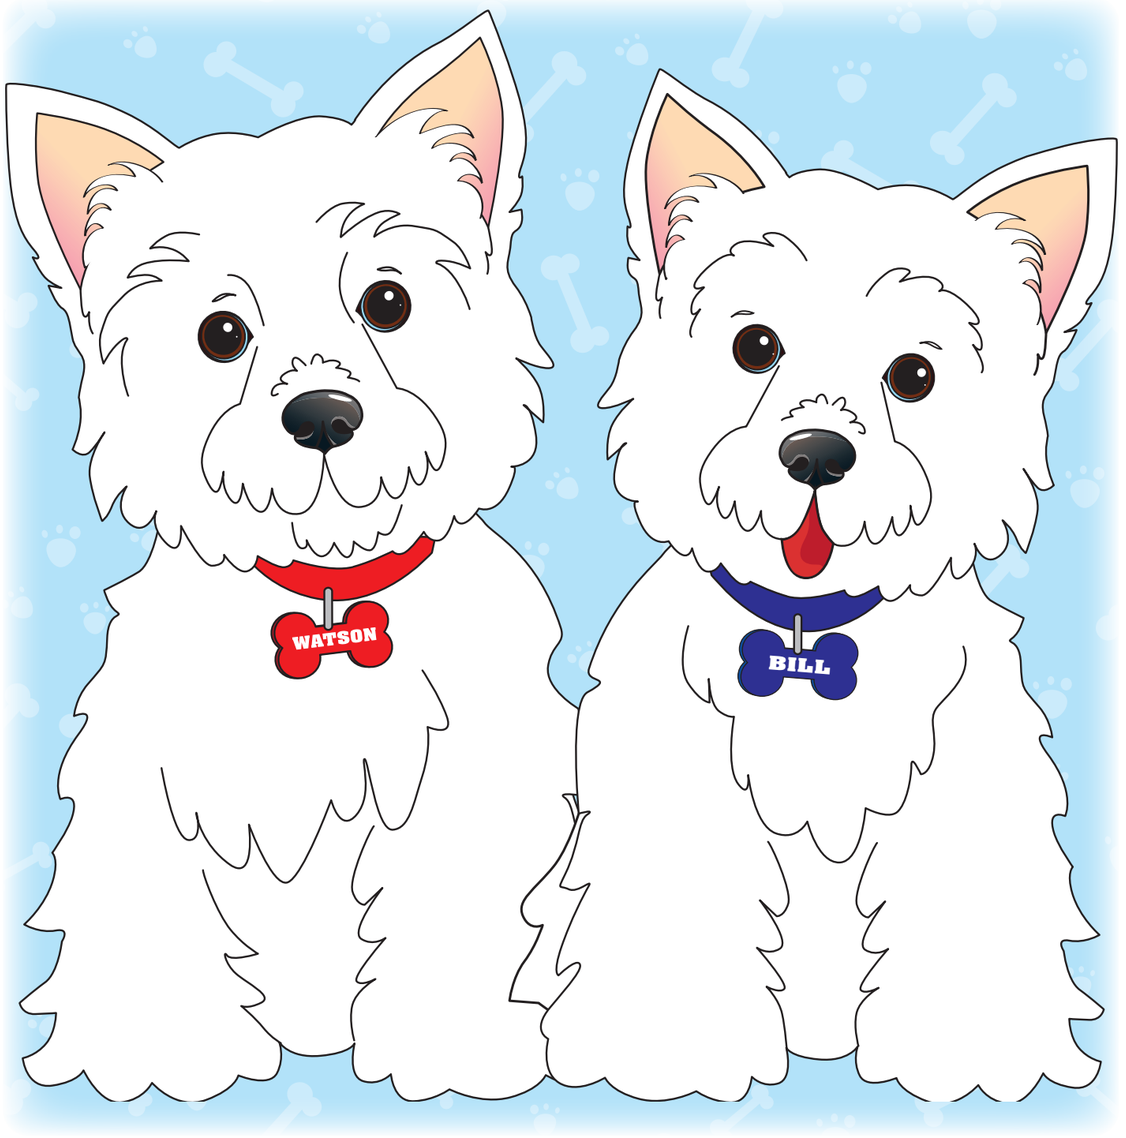
illustrated by Jennifer Tipton Cappoen

KIDS

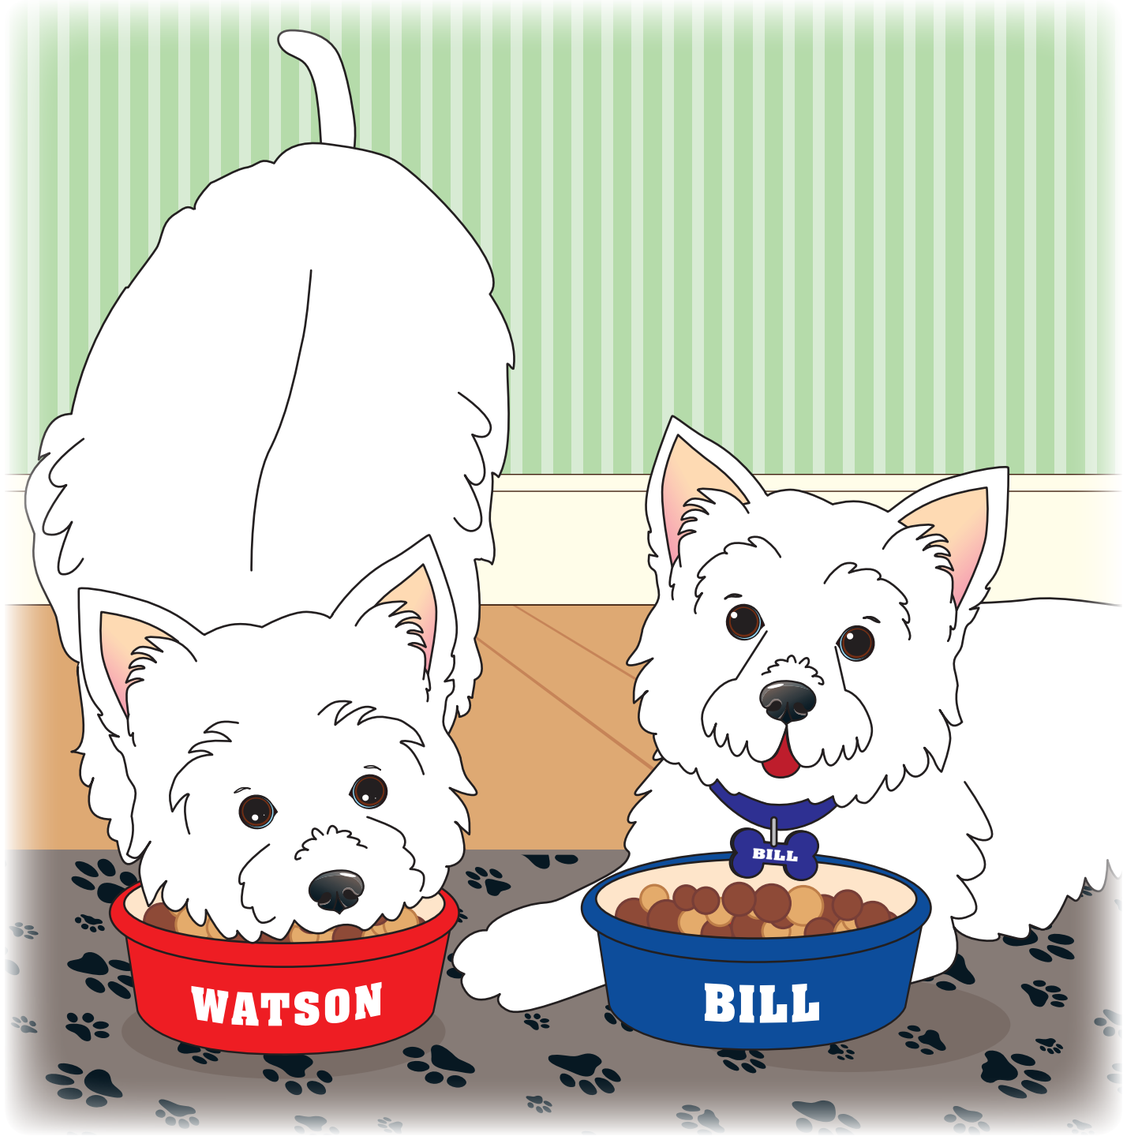
Meet two little Westies
Who live in the Ville.
One is named Watson.
The other's named Bill.
Now Billy and Watson
Are not brothers by birth,
But they look so alike
That you'd think so
At first.

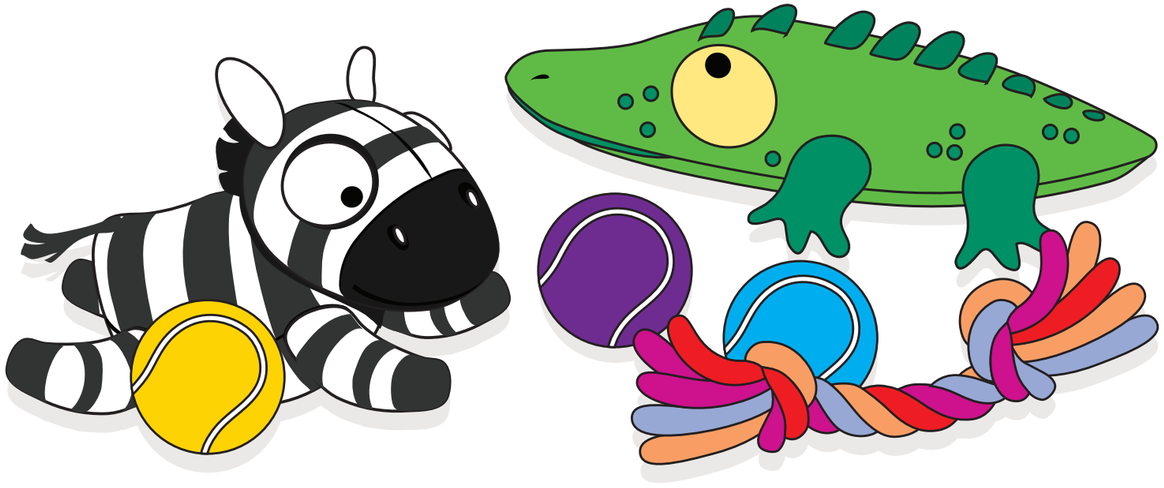
Billy is rounder,
With soft curly hair,
While Watson is taller
And has a short crooked tail.

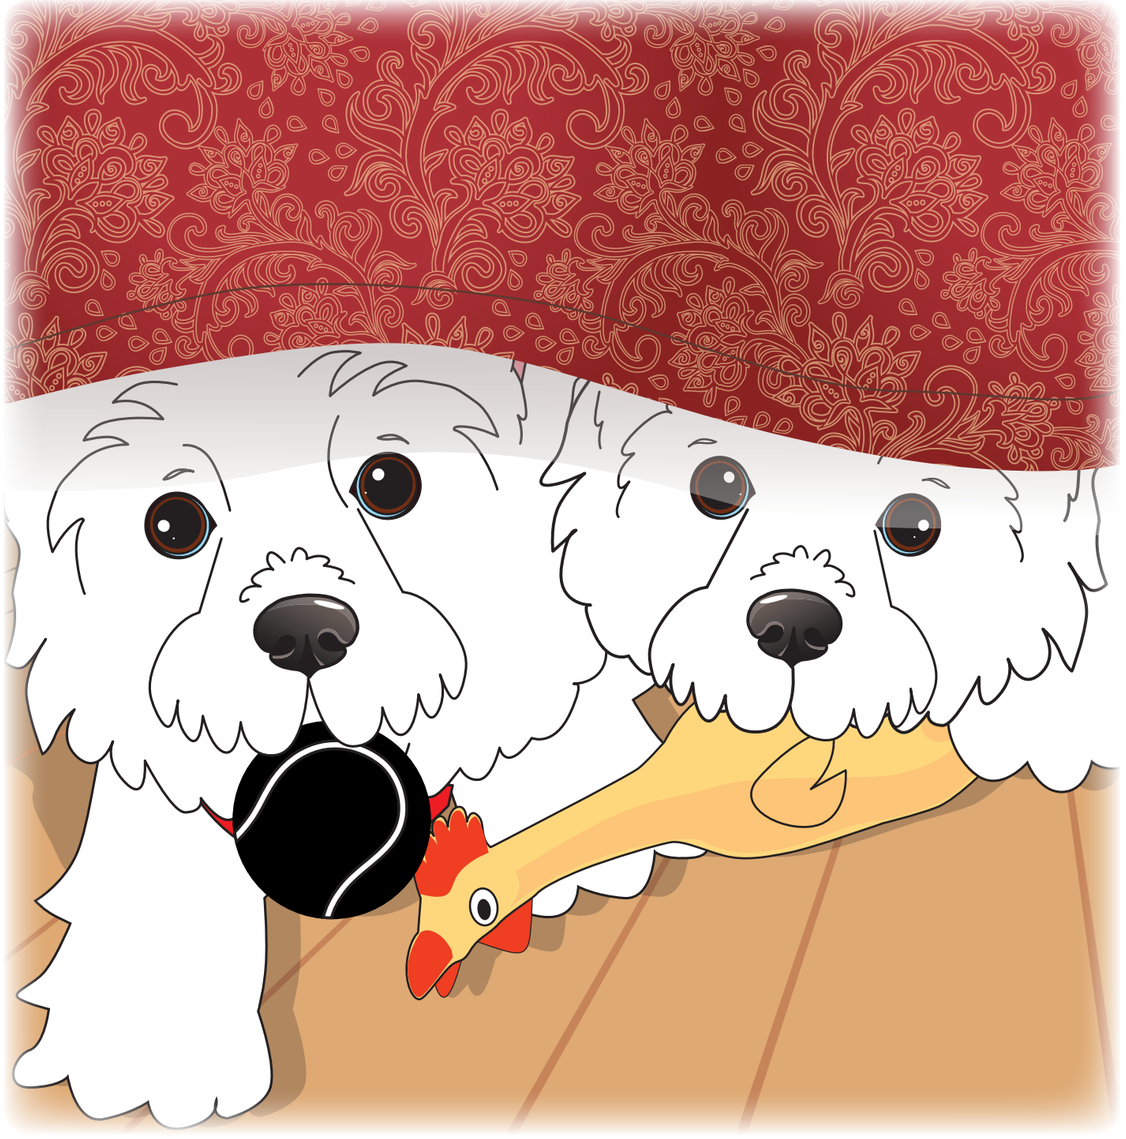
They live with their human—
A nice lady of course—
Who loves and adores them
And spoils them by choice.



She makes sure they are cared for
By meeting their needs,
Like feeding them food
That is meant for dog breeds.
They always have water
That is clean and made fresh.
And their bowls are kept full.
Never forgotten in haste.







Their sweet Lady Human
Makes sure that they're clean
With baths and good brushings
To give their coats a sheen.
They don't always like baths,
Just like girls and boys.
They run and try hiding
With their stashed-away toys.